AFTERNOON LETTERPRESS CLASS

Mondays, May 18 – July 13, 2009*, 1:00-4:00pm

$230 APS members / $240 non-members

Instructor: Jason Kofke

Letterpress is the traditional method of pressing inked words and images, cast in metal or polymer, or cut from wood, directly into paper. The letter forms leave their mark, adding a unique and sensuous texture to the page.

In this class you will learn the basics of letterpress printing – composing type, mixing ink, press set-up and printing on the Chandler & Price Platen and Vandercook presses. The class will start with a group project after which students will design and print their own small project such as a postcard, greeting card, business card, or broadside. Ink is provided by the studio, students will supply their own paper or cards. The class will be taught by Jason Kofke, a MFA graduate of Savannah College of Art and Design.

Enrollment is now limited to 6 students in order for everyone to have ample time using the presses. This class fills up quickly so mail your registration/payment early in order to hold your place.

For questions, contact Kathy Garrou at 404-377-7294 or kgarrou@AtlantaPrintmakersStudio.org

There will be no class May 25, Memorial Day*
